Are you a contemporary educator with an interesting project or lesson plan you’d like to share with peers?
Do you and your students find inspiration in the art and ideas of our time?
Would you like to be a part of the 1st ever NAEA Curriculum Slam in San Diego?

Curriculum Slam!
Monday, March 31, 2014
4pm to 5:50 pm
The Curriculum Slam is a forum for educators to learn about fresh, creative ways to bring contemporary art and ideas into the classroom. Meet educators from around the country whose work embraces the spirit of inquiry and innovation. Hear how they engage students with the contemporary.

How does it work?
• Educators from the NAEA community apply to present.
• The Museum of Contemporary Art Chicago Teacher Advisory Committee reviews all applications. 8 presenters are chosen.
• Each presenter gets 7 minutes: 14 PowerPoint slides timed at 30 seconds per slide.

Who can apply?
• Art educators
• All grade levels
• Must have real world teaching experience in a classroom setting

Why apply?
[Presenting at the Curriculum Slam] forced me to really examine what I do, why I do it and how to articulate not only the essential elements of a project but in some ways my own pedagogy.

I also left that evening with great ideas and a list of fresh new artists to share with my students and to use as catalysts for future projects and discussions.
